What's Your Price?

The king of Spain announces that he would take a wife—
He wants a lovely lady to brighten up his life;
He wishes for his helpmate to gladden all his reign,
And make a joyous epoch within the land of Spain;
He wants a handsome heiress, he needn't say it twice,
For now there comes the chorus: "Alfonso, what's your price?"
The trade in noble titles is off a notch or two,
A lord or duke or marquis is really nothing new;
A prince is sometimes offered for all that he may bring,
But this is something bigger—who wants to buy a king?
Put up the box, Alfonso, just one throw of the dice,
Bring from ten thousand papas.
"Alfonso, what's your price?"
We're counting up our millions in iron, coal and steel,
In oil and corn and copper, in hogs and beef and veal,
In mansions plutocratic each daughter may be seen,
Perusing gilded volumes on "How to be a Queen."
Each daughter says, "O, boy him! I think it would be nice."
The king is on the market,
"Alfonso, what's your price?"

Skating Party

On last Monday evening about seventy-five young people enjoyed the sport of skating on upper Bull Creek. The prophets tell us that we are to have no more of those old fashioned winters like the ones we used to have, snow, sleet, ice and much fun, but they overlooked the cold wave that visited us last Sunday and Monday, however the skaters merry laughter told us that they were enjoying the unlooked for sport.

Dancing Party

Mrs. Frayser entertained a few of her friends among the young people last Monday evening, Jan. 12. The affair was quite informal but none the less enjoyed. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Good music and smooth floors made the evening one of much pleasure, as they all are that are spent with Dr. and Mrs. Frayser as host and hostess. The following guests were present:
Misses: Messrs.
Tot Foreman Vance McSpadden
Laura Stevens Edgar Huntington
Rhea Miller Jones
Mabel Miller Ernest Crittenden
Byrd Ironsides Morris Helms
Marshall Stevens

Chafing Dish Party

Miss Mary Mae Browning entertained a few of her friends Wednesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Browning. "Stock Exchange" was the diversion of the evening during the evening spent with Miss Browning, and each one entered into the spirit of the lively game with zeal and merriment. Mr. Taylor of Chicago won the first prize, a lovely jade book, beautifully bound, "Shakespeare's Comedy of Errors." A second prize or "booby" was given to Miss Maud Miller, a baby rattle. Miss Lyons and Miss Burns assisted Mrs. Browning in making her guests as comfortable as the deliciously prepared when the bit was never more enjoyed than on this evening. The following guests were present:
Misses: Messrs.
Mabel Miller Edgar Huntington
Laura Stevens Marshall Stevens
Taylor Crittenden

Spelman Riggs

A full house greeted the lecturer last evening, and each one that braved the very inclement weather felt fully repaid. Mr. Riggs entertained his audience in a very pleasing manner. His imitations and impersonations were unique and interesting. Wit, humor and laughter made the evening one of veritable enjoyment. There remains three more numbers on the program of the lecture course and if the remaining three prove as interesting as the ones already heard the committee is to be congratulated on its happy selections.

Art Club

Mrs. W. P. Phillips entertained the members of the Embroidery club and several guests Friday afternoon, Jan. 16. This was the first meeting of this club this year, and if all are as happy as this one the club may look forward to many happy afternoons. Fingers were kept busy, visiting with each with new ones to be added. This club is to be called The Modern Priscilla Club, meeting every two weeks. Mrs. Browning played the part of hostess delightfully and each guest voted the afternoon one of veritable pleasure. The following were the guests: Mesdames Griffith, Geo. Nidiffer, Swale, Hult, Horton, Rhea, Sam Burns, Brock, Sam Parks, Wilson Franklin, Misses Ida Beatty, Mattie Garrison and Lillie Burns. Mrs. Sam Burns was chosen as president. The refreshments served at five o'clock were most delectable and dainty. The first course consisted of chicken salad, peanut sandwiches and wafers. The second course of cafe noir and nabisco wafers.

Entre-Nous Club

The above is the name of a literary club organized by Mrs. Chas. Lahman on the afternoon of Jan. 9 with about twelve charter members. This club intends doing some very strong work this year. In the study of Psychology. A short time at each meeting is to be spent in discussing current events. Mrs. Lahman was elected president. The next meeting is to be held with Mrs. McGuffin on Friday, Jan. 23rd.

Foreign Missionary Society

Mrs. Chas. W. Day entertained the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church last Tuesday afternoon. This was the regular meeting of the society. The first hour was spent in business, election of officers and regular society work after which quite a pleasant hour was spent socially, during this time dainty refreshments were served. There were many guests invited. Mrs. J. M. Gross was elected president of the society.

Euchre Club

Mrs. J. S. Swain gave the members of the euchre club and several guests an afternoon of veritable enjoyment when the ladies met with her on Wednesday, January 14. There were six tables arranged in the parlor and dining room. The score cards were quite unique, being bright red hearts with a border of pressed roses. Nine games were played, each guest vying with the other in skill and merriment. No prizes are given in this club, but this does not make the ladies any less in earnest in their desire to win. Misses Laura Stephens, Lillie Burns and Gyp Blackstone assisted Mrs. Swain in serving delightful refreshments. The following guests were present: Mesdames W. B. Coley, P. L. Soper, I. D. Knight, Carl Bradley, David Reese, L. J. Tibbles, Will Trotter, W. T. Hunt, Robert Farmer, Misses Ida Beatty, Maud Miller, Mabel Miller, Graper and Fortner. After the game delectable refreshments were served in one course: scalloped oysters, some gherkins, brown bread, black coffee and cake.

Afternoon Tea

On Thursday afternoon and evening the ladies of the Methodist church were at home to their many friends at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Gross. There was quite a crowd present and the excellent program of music furnished by the members of this society made the afternoon one of rare pleasure. After spending some time in conversation delightful refreshments were served in two courses. In the evening a more elaborate program was arranged. Miss Brown of Willie Halsell College gave several piano selections, which were greatly appreciated. Miss Smith gave a very sweet selection on the guitar. There were two violin selections given by Harvey Hicks accompanied by his sister Miss Mary Hicks on the guitar. This tea was a financial success as well as a social one.

HON. ROBERT C. BROWN.

One of the Most Prominent Men in Southwestern Illinois.

Robert C. Brown, of Sparta, Ill., has represented his district, the 48th, for six years and was recently notified of his coming appointment as clerk of the U. S. Court for the Southern District of Illinois. He was born in 1859, and has worked his way to the top simply by force of application, energy and good common sense. After working several years as a blacksmith, he studied law at night and was admitted to the bar in 1894. He is a prominent member of the Knights of Pythias, the Elks and Modern Woodmen. February 20, 1901, he writes as follows:

"Pepsin Syrup Co., Dear Sirs—From careful and varied experiences I desire to add my testimony as to the merit of your Syrup Pepsin preparation. It is in many respects equal to the services of a dozen physicians. I have used it as a tonic after severe illness and as a strengthener for the stomach and digestive organs. In one case in particular it was of incalculable value in my household, and it is with pleasure that I testify as to its worth as a household remedy. Yours respectfully, R. C. BROWN, Representative 48th Senatorial District, Sparta, Ill."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound is sold by People's drug store in 50c and $1 bottles.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D.

Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge, but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles." Price 25c, 50c, $1 bottle at People's drug store.

IF UNWELL.

Try a 50c bottle of HERRING, notice the improvement speedily effected in your appetite, energy, strength and vigor. Watch how it brightens the spirits, gives freedom from indigestion and debility! Isaac Story, Ava, Mo., writes, Sept. 10th, 1900. "I was in bad health, I had stomach trouble for 12 months, also dumb chills. Dr. J. W. Mory prescribed HERRING, it cured me in two weeks. I cannot recommend it too highly, it will do all you claim for it." Sold by People's drug store.
